Details such as how to setup your profile, what kind of picture to publish how to make the first contact and many more important details to make you a real hook up hunter.

The Hook up Hunter eBook is helping hundreds of thousands to get laid. People who never thought they could actually get sex are now having sex thanks to Hook up Hunter guide.

We do not only share feedback and experiences but we also share the usernames of woman who are ready for action. When one of us gets hooked up we all get hooked up because we are a team of hook up hunters.

We do have one important rule which you must always remember and obey.

Never, ever DO the same woman twice.

Step 1 - Where to find them?

You don't have to be an expert for this. We are hunting in a jungle not a small forest within the largest site with over 20 million members. 40% of them are horny woman single or married waiting to be hunted. The question is not where to find them but rather how? One question is how you approach woman online in order to get laid? If you are looking for away on how to maintain a long lasting relationship then you have come to the wrong place we only know how to do one thing how to gain a woman's trust and then fuck her brains out. Remember in this club we only fuck a woman once as there are many more women to hunt in the jungle.

View below sample of just a few women online waiting to get fucked.

There are over 10 million women like this online just imagine how many women you can fuck.

Step 2 - Profile Setup

You are not just some horny guy online looking for sex well maybe you are but what you are not going to let the any woman know of your ulterior motive. You have to portray a faithful, sensitive and caring person to gain the trust of your prey. You have to be the guy they have always been looking for and always wanting, not the guy who just wants to fuck them and leave them. You have to trick the prey into thinking that you actually care about what they have to say, also that the character is more important then looks. The main goal is to get the prey to feel secure with you then strike at the right time to get yourself fucked. It takes knowledge patience and confidence to get this done correctly and anyone can do this if they really want to. Remember the quicker you gain the preys trust and confidence the quicker you can tear off their underwear and fuck their brains out.

Profile:

You should always use your real name if you can as providing an alias or a name like George L will be way too mysterious and will not allow you to gain trust. You are a happy person who loves their life. You love physical activities, gym, football etc. You love romantic movies and you are a very sensitive caring person who likes to listen. Women say that you have a special charm but that you are shy at first but when you open up you are a sweet trusting person. You have a good stable job and you are financially secure. Profile range should be as wide as possible as you do not want to limit yourself to short by only looking for woman in your town open it up to state and even county level. More people have sex when traveling on business then any other form and take it from us that woman will jump on a plane and come and visit you for some sex if you play your cards right. Please remember to answer truthfully where you can to all questions i.e height, body type etc.

What you are looking for:

You are looking for an open legged woman of course. You are looking for a relationship and more if you are not into over weight or older woman then do not be afraid to get this out in the open but sometimes this could be an interesting endeavor ☺ and at the end of the day if a woman doesn't suit your needs you don't have to reply there are many more woman to hunt in the jungle. There are over 10 million horny women online right now waiting for some guy to come along and fuck them so you won't have to worry about having enough women to hunt. It doest take patience and you will need to do your fair share of hunting but the rewards are great having no strings attached sex.

You're Picture:

Very important no matter how well hung or confident you are do not put a picture of your cock as your profile you can always send this later if you are asked. Woman do not like this as it does not allow you to build the level of trust that will actually allow a woman to meet you in person. You need to put a real picture of yourself but don't worry if you are ugly as fuck it doesn't really matter because you are not on live T.V you can take a picture from a distance and or you could also use a picture when you were younger no more then 5 years though. A photograph with a suit will always do better as it shows a level of trust and safety don't put a picture of you at hooters etc this will be detrimental to building the trust level.

Step 3 - First Contact

If you are approached by a woman from the site then you will need to respond with an email like this.

“Hello Maria9343,

I was excited to get your email and from what I have seen so far even though I'm new to this website you are definitely the most beautiful girl I have seen. Your eyes are telling me that you have the full package. I feel like you have a lot on your mind and a lot to say and I'm ready to listen as I would love to hear it all.

Regards, xxx”

Remember if there is no picture in the profile just use the same message but do not mention the eyes. In the email you need to give a compliment and also give the feeling that you just want to listen to what they want to talk about. Remember you want to give the prey the feeling that you want to get to know them as a person to get to understand their character.

Once you get the next email with her life story you are basically 50% hooked up. Now you need to dig deeper into the emotional side of things you really need to pull your sensitive side out here and reply with a heartfelt emotional response. In this email she has probably given you a sob story so try and play the role of a caring psychiatrist or her gay guy friend who always asks her how she feels lol. At the end of the email you need to work your way towards getting the preys digits or you can always provide your digits which can sometimes work better as it is a more subtle approach. You can say something like “I would love to speak to you more over a cup of coffee call me on 816-555-6568 if you are interested”

If you are approaching a woman and you will be approaching many you need to know the following: A lot of woman put their picture on their profile but a lot of woman do not due to the fact that they are married or in a relationship or simply do not want their co workers see them on an adult social network site. One fact that you must know though is woman who do not have profile pictures get 10 times less email messages then woman with profiles but this is an important tip because they are 10 more willing to respond to your email as well as getting into their pants.

Woman with profile picture

“I was scanning through many profiles on the site until I got fixated on your profile. I saw the look of sadness in your eyes but also see that you have a treasure inside of you waiting to come out. I would love to know more about you and would be honored if you would send me a response.”

Woman with no profile picture

“There are millions of profiles online with beautiful profile pictures but for some reason I have this gut feeling that urges me to find more information about you. Your profile really caught my eye and I would love to get to know you better.”

You can always ask for a picture at this time as well but do not be pushy. Remember there is a reason that the prey did not put their picture on their profile and being too pushy to receive a picture at this time will hurt your chances of getting laid. You can always get a detailed description of what they look like and once you get on the phone with them you will get their picture.

Start hunting now click here to get started

Step 4 - Getting the digits

Never responds to any message immediately no matter how horny or desperate you are never ever respond any sooner then two hours. You have to be patient “don’t scare the fish while you are fishing or you will end up with nothing to eat”. Something which is very important is that you need to ask in one of your conversations what her favorite color you will need to know this for section 7 which is what kind of gift to bring. If you get an email which you do not know how to handle you can always post the message on our forum and get a response back from one of our experienced “hunters”

Step 5 - Where to meet

The first time you should meet at somewhere in a relaxed public atmosphere like at a Starbucks or something like that. It should be a very casual atmosphere but also one in which will not be too private as the sound of other people talking will help break the ice and make it easier to talk and break the ice. Try and always use things you spoke about via email and refer to some detailed information in which the prey spoke about in prior emails. What this will do is allow the prey to feel comfortable in the fact that you actually remember things that she spoke to you about. This always works in making women feel that you are a caring person.

Start hunting now click here to get started

Step 6 - What to wear

You don't need to be a totally fashion inclined to know what makes you look good and what does not but you basically want to wear something that makes you look confident but something in which you will also be comfortable. The reason you need to be comfortable is so that it will help with perspiration if you are really nervous etc. If it is not your first time and you are very confident you can always wear something less comfortable but classier like a suit etc. If you wear a suit do not wear a tie and make sure you have 2 buttons undone. Sample below:

Start hunting now click here to get started

Step 7 - What gift to bring

Make sure whatever gift you bring with you that it is the prey's favorite color. When speaking in your prior conversation via email or phone make sure you find out her favorite color and then when purchasing the gift make sure it is of her favorite color. This way even if she does not like the gift she will like the fact that you remembered her favorite color. Women love it when men remember things. Remember we need the women to feel safe and feel that she will be in good hands. If you do this correctly you will be having sex in no time.

Step 8 - Changing the location

This step is all about timing you need to make sure that the target feels comfortable enough for you to change the location from a public place to a more private place like a hotel room or motel room depending on budget. You need to be careful on how you ask the question and what you say because normally saying do you want to get a room in a Hotel or Motel means that sex will be inevitable. When you make your move make sure you are calm and collective and that you do not show any sign of lack of confidence.

Start hunting now click here to get started

Step 9 - How to say I'm sorry

Well anyone can say I'm sorry but when you're a hook up hunter you need to do it with style. You have to make sure they understand that they have been played the whole time and that it was all just a game to get to the target. You need to be happy proud and excited because now you are an official hook up hunter.

All the above are effective steps needed to become a real hook up hunter but you will need to follow the link below in order to start test your acquired hunting skills
